

COLLEGE QUESTIONNAIRE

Name: _____

The following questions are designed to give us (and you) a sense of where you stand in the process of searching for a school that matches where you'd like to go and what you'd like to do:

List any colleges you've visited . . . and any thoughts you have about each:

_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____

List any other schools you might be interested in, and why:

_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____

Do you think you'd prefer a small college, a medium-sized university, or a large state school? Why?

Where, in relation to home, do you think you'd like to go? In other words, do you want to be near to or far from St. Louis, or somewhere in between? Why?

Any particular areas or cities in the country (or the world) in which you'd like to attend college? Have you thought about staying in the Midwest, going South, to one of the coasts, or to somewhere else? Why?

Would you prefer to live in a big city, small town, or suburb? Why?

Do you have any sense of what you want to major in? List all subjects you think might interest you.

What would you like to be doing professionally ten years from now? _____

Do you have any friends or close relatives at college? What have they said about their schools--and their experiences?

Have you taken the SATs? What about the ACTs? Do you plan to take them, or take them again? Do you know when?

List any schools you might be visiting this school year or over the summer:

List teachers whom you believe would be willing to write you a recommendation:

The essay part of the college application is usually written in the form of a personal narrative. Do you have any experiences that might lend themselves to such an essay? Explain.

In what ways can I, as your college counselor, help you the most through this process? _____
